The World Cup is here...

And we've compared how the trades and public will be watching and engaging with the tournament.

VOICE
OF THE TRADE

The trades plan to watch more, but are less excited for 2026

How likely are you to watch?

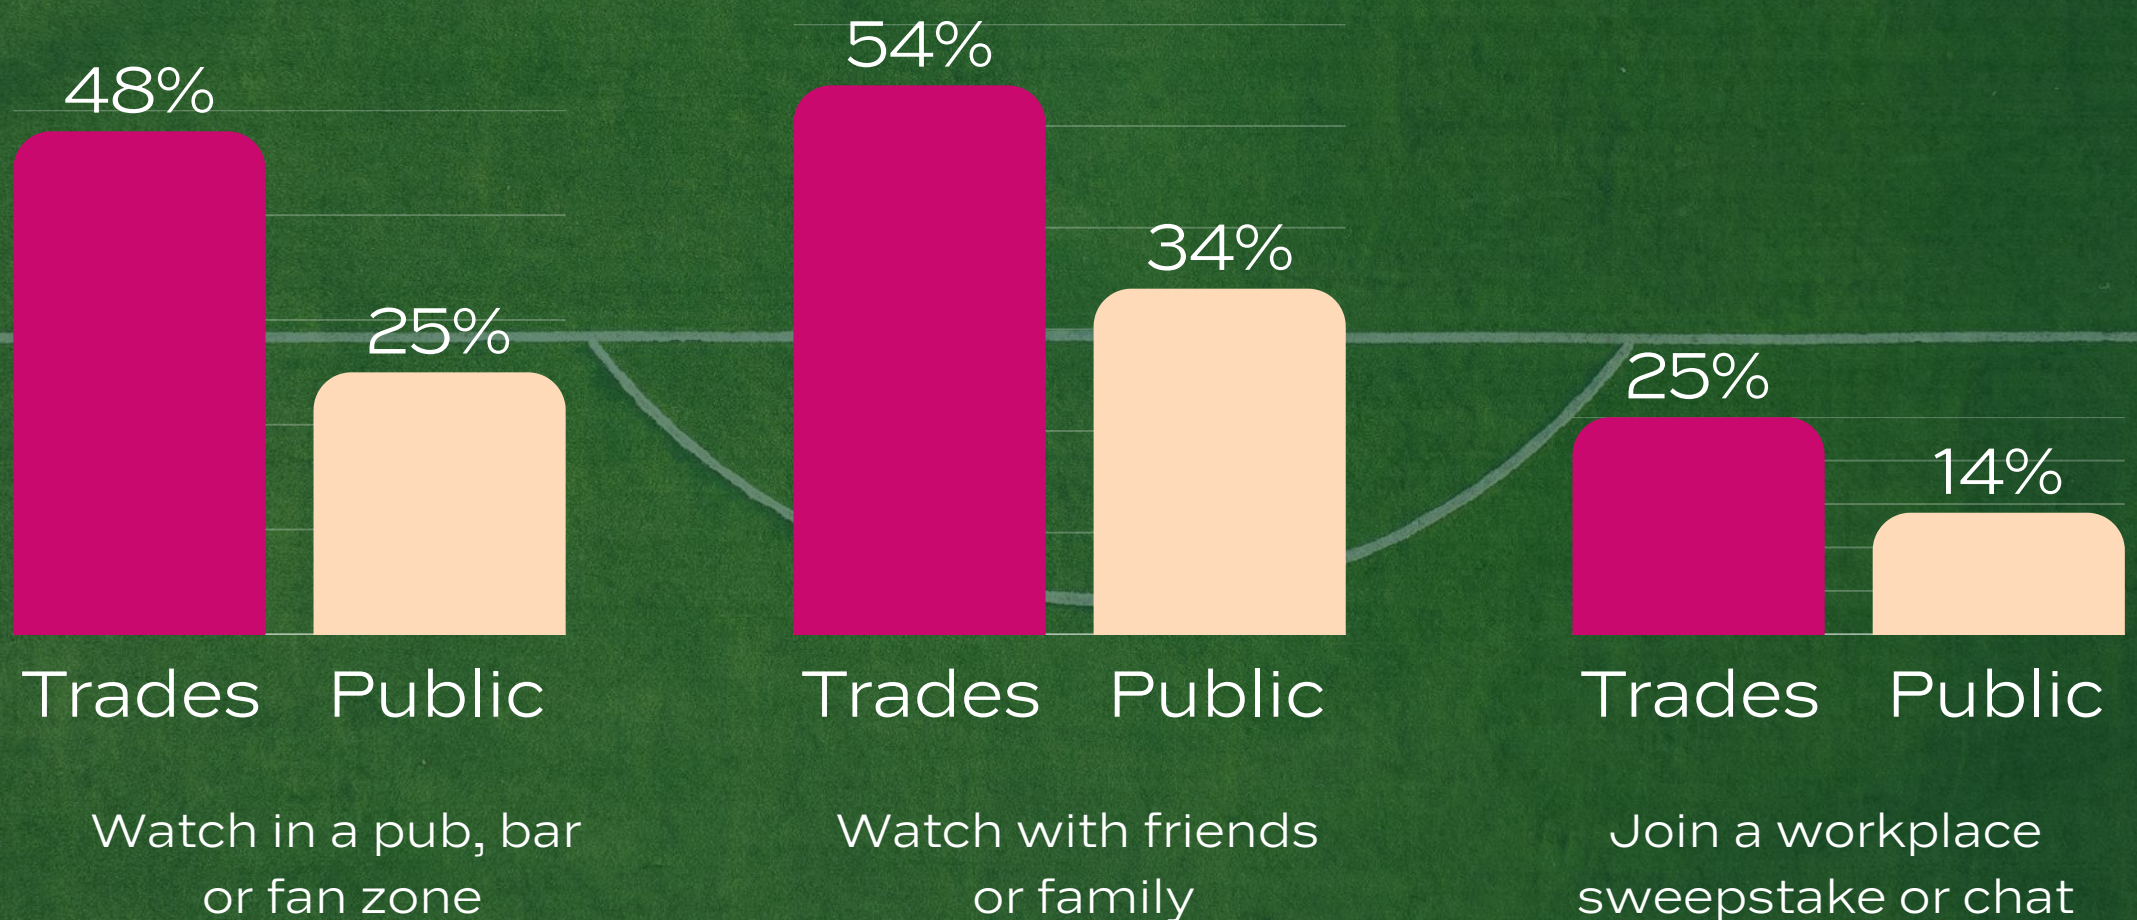

Net excitement compared to previous tournaments

Base: 244 UK adults and 116 UK tradespeople, asked how likely they are to watch and how their excitement compares to previous tournaments. Fieldwork conducted 5 - 10 June 2026

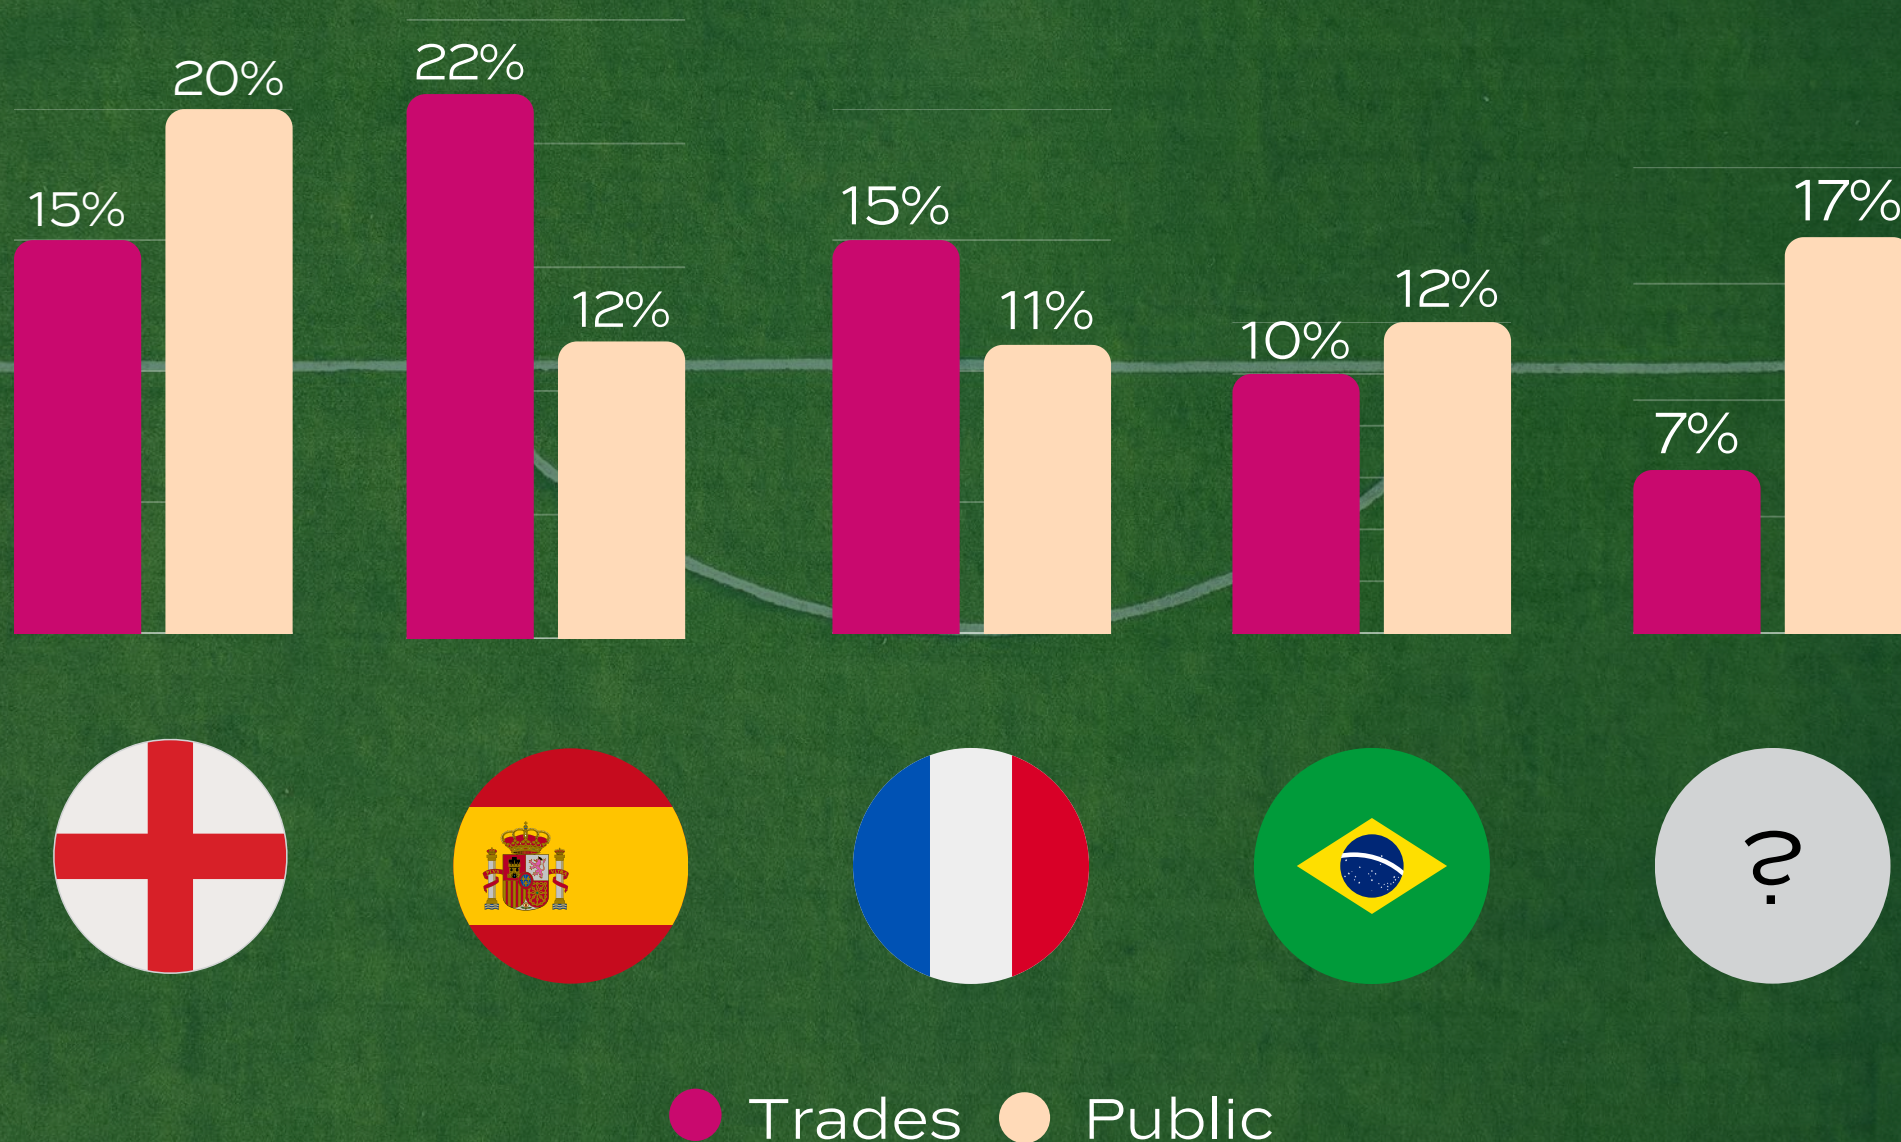

For the trades, it's a team game off the pitch too

Base: 244 UK adults and 116 UK tradespeople, asked how they expect to engage with the tournament. Fieldwork conducted 5 - 10 June 2026

The trades are less likely to back England as winners. And have more faith in their predictions

Base: 244 UK adults and 116 UK tradespeople, asked who they think will win the 2026 World Cup. Fieldwork conducted 5 - 10 June 2026

A third of Britain don't associate any brands with the World Cup

Trades

31%

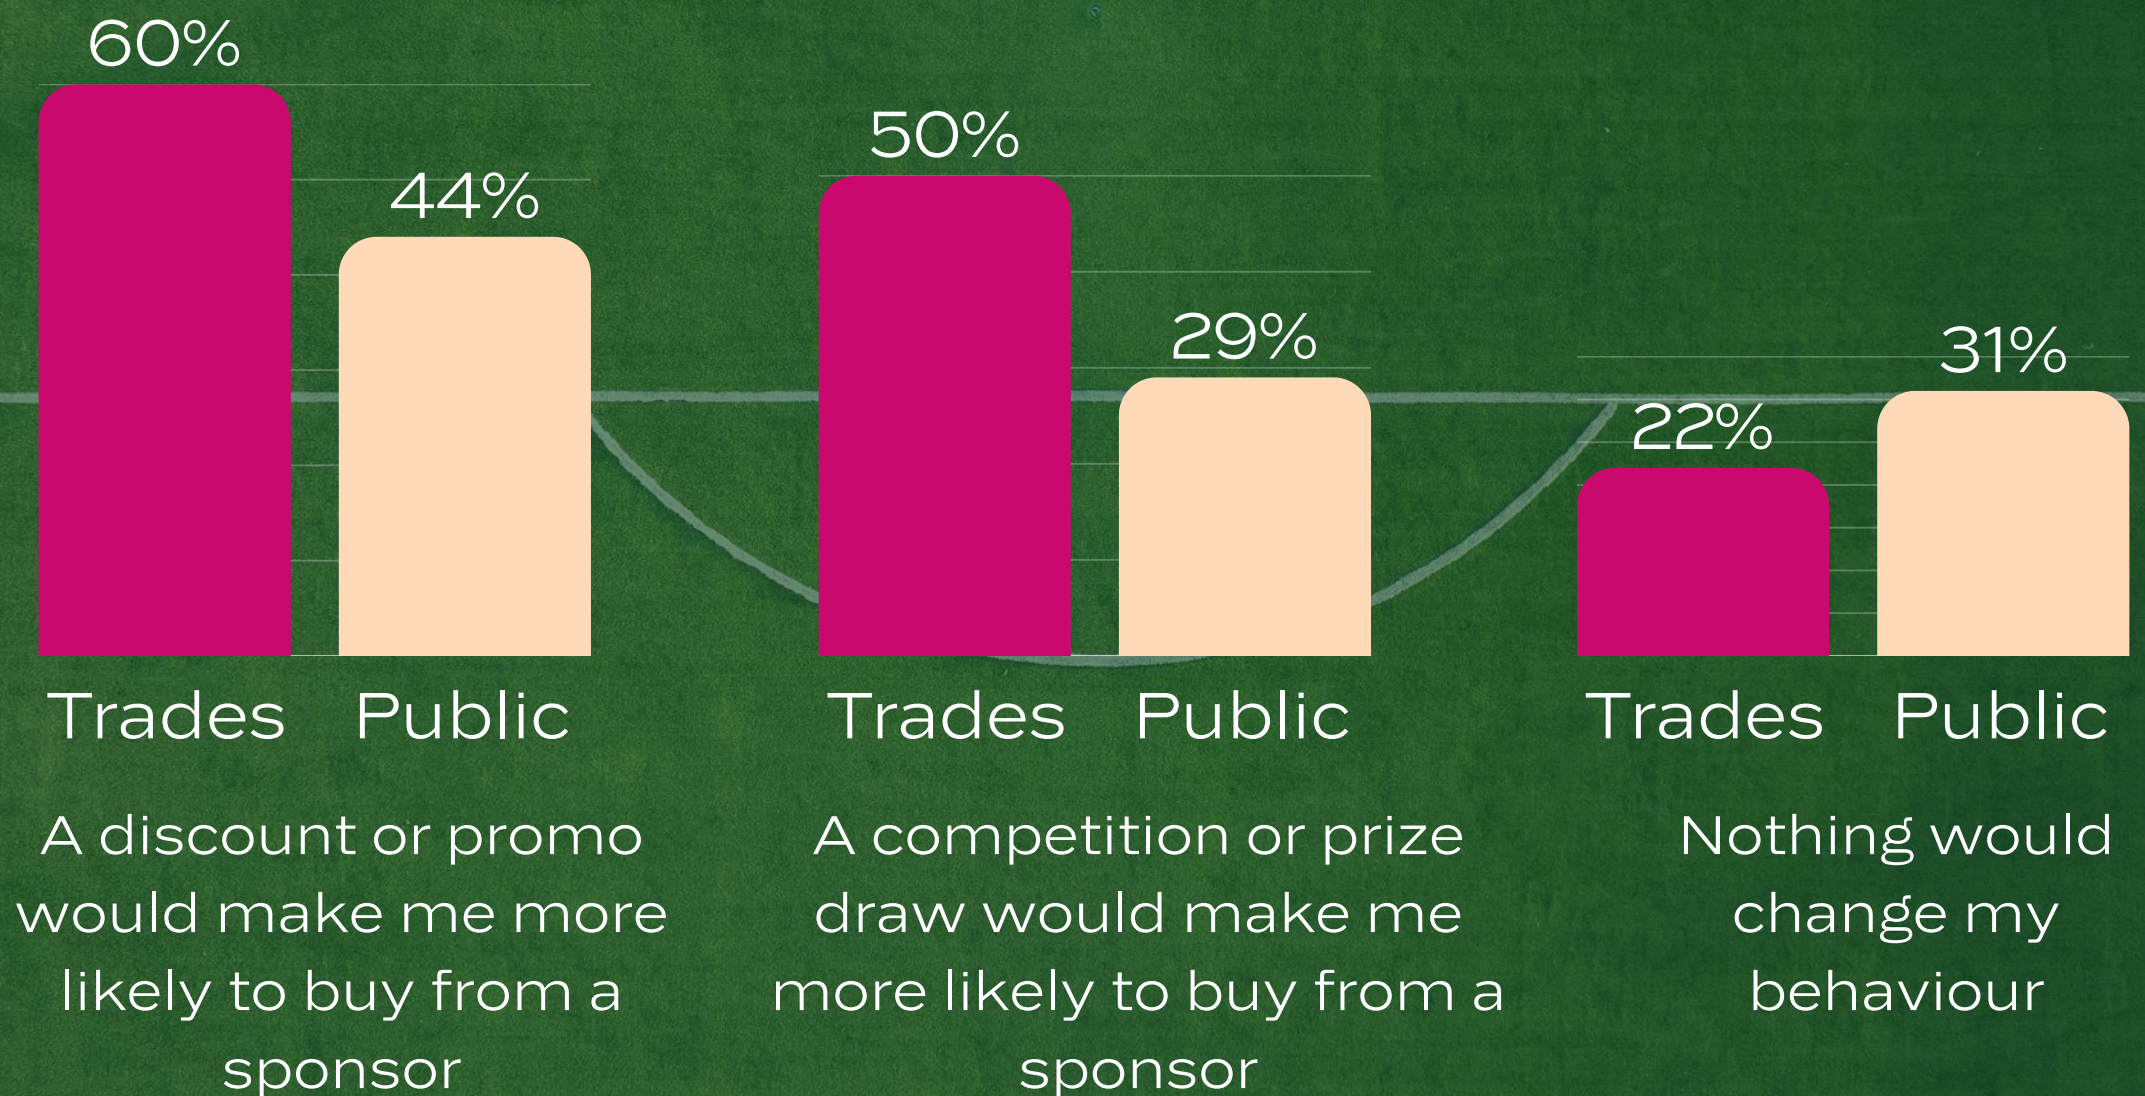

Public

35%

% don't associate any brand with the tournament, before the event has started

The trades are far more open to being won over by sponsors

Base: 244 UK adults and 116 UK tradespeople, asked what would make them more likely to buy from a World Cup sponsor. Fieldwork conducted 5 - 10 June 2026

If you are going to convert tradespeople, the merchant counter is key

What would make a brand stand out to you during the World Cup?
